講義概要	This is a course in cross-cultural communication using English with a strong emphasis on fluency. The first half of the course focuses on etiquette and strategies for fostering strong relations when communicating in English. These strategies will be used in real life through participation in the International Virtual Exchange (IVE) Project. Students will discuss topics in groups with students from abroad in the IVE Project. Finally, we will look at techniques students can improve their own English autonomously. International Virtual Exchange is an integral part of this course. Students will exchange messages with other students around the world in English as part of a cultural exchange project.
